Practice

Ken Antee has eighteen years of experience in private practice of law having concentrated in litigation involving personal injury, commercial, real estate, domestic, corporate governance, bankruptcy, and general experience. While in private practice, he handled hundreds of cases involving both plaintiffs and defendants. He is admitted to the practice of law in Louisiana Courts, United States District Courts- Western and Middle Districts. Mr. Antee served as the Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) for the city of Shreveport, LA from 1998-2006. As the CAO, he was responsible for the day to day operation of a city with the population of 200,000 and an annual budget of $400 million. Mr. Antee served on the city's Risk Management Committee, Health Care Trust Fund and Employee Retirement Boards. He was the project manager for the design and construction of several multi-million dollar projects including: Independence Stadium Renovation ($35 million), Shreveport Convention Center ($100 million), Shreveport Convention Center Hilton Hotel ($52 million), City Jail ($8 million), and several other smaller construction projects. He negotiated on behalf of the city a $4.5 million settlement for a claim for the default of a contractor on a performance bond. He was involved in complex construction and design litigation involving multi-million dollar claims. As CAO, Mr. Antee was the final appeal available for employees' grievances. He negotiated several multi-million dollar contracts for the city including utility franchise agreements, relocation, and consolidation of City Hall and service agreements.
