Practice

Bobby Marzine Harges is the Adams and Reese Distinguished Professor of Law II at Loyola College of Law. Prior to his arrival at Loyola, Professor Harges practiced law in New Orleans with Deutsch Kerrigan and Stiles, specializing in civil and construction litigation. He also taught at the University of Mississippi School of Law. Before entering law school, he worked as an electrical engineer. Although he has mediated and arbitrated hundreds of cases of all types, his primary experience as a neutral includes the mediation and arbitration of securities, construction, commercial, personal injury, labor, and employment matters. Mr. Harges also serves as attorney-chair of medical review panels. He has assisted several companies in designing in-house dispute resolution programs.
