Practice

Pat LeBlanc is a prominent trial attorney in Louisiana and is one of the few women to direct and lead major defense litigation for national and international corporations. She has served a member of the Board of Directors for the Louisiana Association of Defense Counsel, and on the faculty of the Louisiana Defense Counsel Trial Academy. In 2000 she was selected as a Fellow in the Louisiana Bar Foundation. She is a Master in the John Boutall American Inns of Court. Additionally, Mrs. LeBlanc is well known for her active role in civic, governmental and professional activities. In 2008 she was selected by Governor Bobby Jindal to serve as his appointee on the Louisiana Recovery Authority. In 2004 she was appointed by Louisiana Governor Kathleen Blanco to serve on the Greater New Orleans Expressway Commission. As an appointee of the Parish President, she has twice chaired Jefferson's Home Rule Charter Advisory Board. Currently she chairs the Public Policy Initiative of the New Orleans Women's Leadership Council. Mrs. LeBlanc has been married for 34 years and has four children.
